Mr. Moran yesterday received a letter from the president of the Plasterers Union, applauding Mr. Morsan and The Herald for revealing the facts about the unemployed here. It was suggested Herald for revealing the facts about the unemployed here. It was suggested to Mr. Moran that there are hundreds of vacant houses in this city in need of repairs and that the repairing of these dwellings would give work to many.

"It will be a good business move and an act of charity if the property owners of the city will examine their holdings and learn what repairs are needed without waiting for the agents to act," commented Mr. Moran.

Secretary Ufford, of the Associated Charities, said it must be understood that while there are many unemployed here there is no great crisis yet.

"The weather this fall has been exceptionally milds and open," he said, "and Thion to Table and Thion and Atlanta at Chion is all thin the ancieng, visiting the Capitol, Liberary of Congress, and a number of other public buildings.
